

January 9, 1974

PRESIDENT: Senator Carpenter.

SENATOR CARPENTER: Yesterday I had an amendment to 592. Since that time it has developed that the 592 is in the form of questionable application. I understand that I the Secretary of State who has charge of elections, and other people who are interested in elections as well as education who would like to have time to consider the matter and bring in an amendment which we printed in the Journal for your consideration at that time. I would think it would probably take about a week. Probably at the outside of the amendment to be drafted. This came up unknowing to me that it is one of these vehicles. That certainly if the bill is not in proper form now is the time to attempt to correct it. So I ask for the bill to be held over one week.

PRESIDENT: Senator Carpenter is asking unanimous consent to hold over 592 for a week. Are there any objections? Hearing none so ordered. Unless we move to 565 we're out of work. Are there..excuse me..Are there bills for introduction on the desk?

CLERK: I have some reports, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Good, read the reports. Excuse me. Senator Keyes, for what purpose do you rise. Senator

SENATOR KEYES: Mr. President, Sometime when we have a couple a minutes when we don't have anything to do I would like to talk for a second.

PRESIDENT: Point of special privilege.

SENATOR KEYES: Yes
